

The Principal's Update

I am feeling particularly festive this week as Christmas has definitely arrived at Howell's, just in time for us to open the first doors of our advent calendars tomorrow. On Tuesday, our young leaders decorated the tree in the Stone Hall and they have certainly showed their artistic flair as it is looking beautiful; do come and have a look next time you are at school.

Wednesday was a particularly festive day: our Year 12 Young Enterprise teams, clad in Christmas hats, headed to IKEA to sell their products at the annual Christmas Market, where their entrepreneurial skills were evident. The Senior Choir braved torrential rain to lead the community carol singing at the switching on of the Christmas lights on Llandaff High Street, and Year 5 and 6 sang at the Tenovus Lovelight concert at St John's Church in the Hayes. As you receive this newsletter, our Christmas Fair is in full swing in the Sports Hall, Drama Room and Day Room. Parents, students, alumni, staff, governors and friends are having a great time browsing the stalls, tucking in to the delicious cakes at our Christmas Café and stopping off for a selfie with Santa. Many thanks to Mrs Eling, staff, students, parents and everyone who has made the day so special. Do visit our Twitter feed to see some photographs from the day and look out for a full write up in my update next week.

It was a pleasure to welcome colleagues, who joined our own teachers, from across the region to our inaugural Teachmeet event on Tuesday, which took place in the Sports Pavilion. The aim of the event was to share best practice, with a focus on developing MAT (More Able and Talented) provision for students. I was delighted that so many attended and am very grateful to Mrs Harrison-Hughes, Miss Hagerty and Mr Walters for all they did to make the evening such a success. Diary Dates

Christmas Jumper Sale

Is your reindeer getting a little snug? Have you outgrown your jingle bells? A week today, on Thursday 6th December, the Parent Pyramid will be holding a Christmas jumper second hand sale in the Hub, where you can donate your outgrown festive knits and pick up replacements for a small donation. Any donations of jumpers can be brought into school between now and next week, and left in the Main Office, or with Mrs Hatcher in the Prep School.

Carol Services

Llandaff Cathedral will once again provide the perfect setting for this year's Carol Services which will take place on Tuesday 11th December. There will be two services, one at 1.45pm and another at 7.00pm, which will include performances from the Year 5 and 6 Choir (afternoon only), Prep Competition Choir (evening only), Senior Choir, College Choir, Youth Choir, Wind Ensemble and Senior Orchestra. The services will also incorporate readings from students, staff and governors. There are no tickets required so we recommend arriving early in order to get a good seat.

I hope you all have a very enjoyable weekend and look forward to seeing staff and students for another productive week starting on Monday.

Sally Davis, Principal

Reminder: On the last day of term, Wednesday 19th December, Howell's will close at the earlier time of 2.00pm. This includes the Library.
